

Chief Executive Officer of the CMC Foundation, Glenwood Springs, CO - The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the CMC Foundation, who reports to the College President, provides executive-level vision, innovation, and leadership for the administration, direction, planning and management of the Colorado Mountain College Foundation. The CEO will continue to lead development efforts on a district-wide basis that further enhance the College's resources in order to fulfill our mission through active efforts that involve developing multiple funding sources while building and maintaining collaborative partnerships. The successful individual will work closely with the executive team as well as internal and external constituent groups to further the vision of the College as it responds to the changing needs of the communities we serve. Successful candidate must be able to achieve positive, measurable results in a fast paced environment. A minimum of a Master's Degree from an accredited institution plus seven years of related executive-level fundraising experience in a major organization, preferably in a higher educational environment or other large public employer. A proven track record for leading and successfully completing Major Gifts and Capital Campaign projects is a must. CMC offers excellent benefits. To submit the required letter of interest, a resume, and a list of three professional references, www.coloradomtn.edu This position remains open until filled with review of resumes to begin February 19, 2010. CMC is an EOE committed to diversifying its workforce.