

Development Director

The National Kidney Foundation in Aurora, CO seeks experienced fundraiser to plan and execute fund raising activities in Colorado, Wyoming and Montana. Manage special events such as walkathons, golf tournaments and galas. Develop major gift programs, planned giving and donor development. Cultivate external business relationships within the community including education, foundation and government contacts. Bachelors Degree and minimum 5 years special event and corporate fund raising experience. Previous experience working for a non profit organization is preferred. Excellent verbal and written communication skills, excellent interpersonal, organizational skills. Flexible for occasional business travel. Send resume & salary requirements to:

NKFEmployment@kidney.org